

THE FAIR A GREAT SUCCESS.

What Would It Have Been Had Not Times Been Hard?

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—In closing the world's Columbian exposition, the officials find themselves in a condition which, compared to that confronting them May 1, is remarkable, and is the best evidence of the success of the fair. With a surplus in the hands of Treasurer Zebecker of which any corporation might feel proud, with all its debts paid and the world applauding what has been done, the directors may look back six months with great complacency. Speaking of the present financial condition of the exposition company Vice President F. W. Peck said:

"We will close our books for the six months of the actual expense of the fair with a cash balance of about $2,500,000. I think that I may truthfully say that our good assets, not counting, of course, cash we have on hand, are nearly double our unsettled accounts. When we contrast this condition with that which faced us on the morning of May 1, we are compelled to congratulate ourselves and our stockholders. Truly the exposition has been a success in every sense. When the fair opened we owned not far from $8,000,000. This was a floating debt of nearly $3,500,000, and we owed on the face of the bonds issued one year ago $4,444,500.

"Pausing now for a moment of retrospection, it is pleasant to think what our success would have been had we not been compelled to contend against hard times, amounting almost to a financial panic throughout the country. Since May we have wiped out that indebtedness, have paid our running expenses, and have a balance on hand, which guarantees some return to the stockholders.

"The history of the fair has been a complete vindication of the business methods of the directors two years ago. The concessions will have paid into the treasury of the world's fair cash to the amount of $3,500,000. In Paris in 1889 the concessions were operated on the cash basis and they paid to the exposition about $700,000. And so, with an attendance slightly smaller than that at Paris, we have collected five times the amount of money.

"I calculate that the receipts of the exposition company from the gates and the few concessions that will remain will aid in meeting expenses hereafter. In making an estimate of the receipts for the future I have made no allowance for the salvage. Times are constantly improving and if we are given an opportunity I am sure we will be able to secure something near the value for whatever buildings we may sell. It would be unfair to the stockholders of the exposition to destroy these buildings immediately. In conclusion I wish you would congratulate for me the stockholders, the people of Chicago and the nation upon the success of this, the world's greatest exposition."

NICARAGUAN NEWS.

An Article of the New Constitution Hampered Foreigners.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Nov. 2.—The Nicaraguan assembly has passed an article of the new constitution which has been framed especially to hamper foreigners.

By its terms they will be obliged to pay forced loans to the government whenever levied, and any all extraordinary taxes which the government may see fit to lay upon them.

If any foreigner resident here should be so bold as to make a claim of any kind against the government he will be exiled at once.

The article may be construed, moreover, to subject resident foreigners to military service.

Anarchists Rejoice.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—David John Nicoll, formerly editor of The Commonweal, anarchist paper, who was sentenced May 6, 1892, to 18 months' imprisonment for inciting to murder, was released from the Chelmsford prison, where he had served his sentence. At the time of his conviction the anarchists expressed deep indignation, and mass meetings were held to protest against the injustice of his sentence, which, it is claimed, was due to a police conspiracy. When he was released, there was no one except his wife at the prison to meet him. Together they proceeded to London. A large mass-meeting of anarchists will be held here Friday to welcome him. All the leading London anarchists will be present.

Mysteriously Poisoned.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Etta Semple and her son Avery, living at 714 Seventh street in this city, were mysteriously poisoned last night. The son died in the morning at 10 o'clock and the mother's condition is critical. The affair is shrouded in the deepest mystery and the family refuse to give any information whatever. Morphine is thought to have been the agent. Coroner McCulloch is pushing the investigation, but will not be able to gather sufficient evidence to hold an inquest for a day or two at least.

Both Doing Well.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Thomas Bradley, the crank who shot Superintendent Matthies in the new Postal Telegraph building on Monday, was resting well in the prison ward of Bellevue hospital yesterday. He will not be able to leave the hospital, it is said, for a week or 10 days. Superintendent Matthies was reported to be improving at the Chambers street hospital.

Finally Identified.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Addison M. Hahn, a lawyer, who formerly lived in Garden City, Kan., where he was considered quite wealthy, committed suicide by jumping into the Delaware river here last Sunday. The body was not identified until yesterday. Hahn was well known here, having lived in this city before he moved to Kansas.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 2.—Loewenthal & Frank Brothers, manufacturers of shirts and underclothing, made an assignment here late yesterday evening. The liabilities are $50,000, and the assets will, it is claimed, cover this. The banks of this city are made preferred creditors. It is said the firm will come out of their difficulty all right if given time.

An Unruly Artesian Well.
BERLIN, Nov. 2.—An artesian well at Schneidemühl, a town of Prussia, on the Kuddowa, which overflowed in June and threatened to devastate the country, has again burst, and an immense volume of water, mixed with sand, is pouring from the opening. Herr Beyer, an expert on mineral springs, has been summoned from Berlin to superintend the repairing of the damage.

British in Africa.

JOHANNESBURG, Nov. 2.—All the forces of the British South Africa company, together with 1,500 native allies under Chief Khama, are converging on Hope Fountain, where the Matabeles are concentrating. Hope Fountain lies south of Bulawayo, King Lobengula's kraal, and the Matabeles must make a decisive stand here or allow Bulawayo to be captured.

Takamine Will Try It Again.

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 2.—Two more distilleries are about to start up here, one of them being the Manhattan. It will be turned over to Jokichi Takamine, the Japanese chemist, to make a test of his process of distilling. A test was begun last June, but Mr. Takamine's illness, from which he has just recovered, interfered with its completion.
